.... East Missisippi.

We are enabled with the utmost conmited and desperately resolved to the election. Gov. Alcorn's he vultures that are gorging themselves or rely upon it, Wayne, Clark, Jasper, plale. Newton and Scott send ings on their coming victory. OTE AN OPEN TICKET.

CANVASS IN RANKIN,-The good on has assured the opponents of Radiabers of colored-not noisy or detrative in their intentions, but firm heir resolves-intend to vote the antidieal ticket. Shelby, McCaskill and oks, all eloquent and valiant chamsaf the Right-are in the field doing masse, with the late dis-

Sensation dispatches to Northern journior Radical organ, is known to be rand Giant of the Klan in Missis-servatives, work from this time ni until the election.

and to their great victory. Dissensions e healed; local issues are suspended, id all good men are working together the sake of a good cause. The whites united. In Clarke, for example, witstanding the astounding treachery Lamondson—the Radical ticket will receive a single white vote outside office-holders' and office-seekers' And many of the better informand well disposed blacks will help to the note of triumph which will be med through the ballot-box.

+40+ THE CLARION of yesterday, we that Major Barksdale met His Excel-the Governor, at Meridian, and Enon the 21st, and 23d inst., but finds e to fill other appointments, in ce of "more important business Are you tired of him al-Major, and do you intend "to give it aservatives of Water Valley and Oxthe 28th and 30th respectively, and consented to do so, postponing the aness which required his presence at

The Leader need not have been in such eet again in joint discussion at rookhaven on yesterday, the 26th .-Mr. Barksdale went to Brookhayen but 20v. Alcorn did not. Consequently they did not meet, nor did Mr. Barksdale peak. From this, it would appear, according to the Leader's interpretation, that even "the Champion" of the Radical party can be overtaken by "fatigue" t times, but from our stand-point we are of the opinion that Gov. Alcorn had more important business here which he vas compelled to attend to. Tax-payers, you must lend all your relies to the cause of Conservatism, or else the bond-payers will control the text Legislature.

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1871.

$2 00 PER YEAR

Conservatism Triumphant.

According to announcement. Hon. Ethe Barksdale and Gov. J. L. Alcorn discussed the issues of the pending canvass, in this city, last Saturday. The speaking took place in the A. & C. R. R. depot, and was listened to by a very large crowd of both

Col. Barksdale, by agreement, opened the ers by facts and figures. which, could the have been fully appreciated by the colores people, would cause them to renounce for ever the horde of plunderers whom they have placed in power. To the white peo-ple, it was what was expected from the ac-gave frequent tokens of approval.

The speaker announced that the issue in volved in the election was, whether the Rad ical party, after nearly two years of trial, had shown itself to be worthy of the people and been permanently intrenched to power in this State. He took the negative of the proposition, and assumed that it had not

First: For its extravagent and wasteful expenditure of the people's money.
Second: As an organized conspiracy against the the peace, lives, liberty and property of our people.

Third: He charged that it was a failere in all the ends for which government is in der and oppression. Thus charging the Radical party, he said, the party he represented, by some called Democratic, by othcies of the times, and that he utterly Jisa-from the main issues of the canvass. Nevrtheless, something was due to the truth of been everything by turns, and nothing history, and he would briefly recur to some long;" and particularly to illustrate the desperate expedients to which Gov. Alcorn had resorted to cover up the rascalities of the party of which he was the head. He then addressed bimself to the task of dissecting the political record of his adversary, and though the body of the subject was a mass of festering sores, the keen instrument him (Alcorn) in the Legislature of 1856.

which showed Alcorn to have been one of the body, looking to the secession of the State.

down into the very dens of the Klan and selected its Grand Giant-its very head-centre-as his (Alcorn's) fuglemmn and orurned and addressed bim to the following charge, and reiterated it, and Dr. Compton tured to do for himself. To settle this questiion, I will submit this proposition: I will again make the charge, and if Dr. Compton does not deny it, or if he does deny it, and I prove it upon him, will you pledge your-um and the organship of your party?

chair, hung his head, mopped the perspiration from his brow, and, like a sheep in the B. directed attention, when a shout went up that tairly rended the building. The Governor's discomfiture was complete, and the negoes witnessed the scene with astonishment. Subsequently, the Governor, in ef-

"Why," he said, "Paul, the Apostle, was once an enemy of Christ, but was converted smuch as Paul was converted by truth.

character better; he was of the scalawag take Alcorn as a starting point and go, in any direction, downward, to his party. He piled figure upon figure, theft upon their.

nfamy upon infamy, oppression upon op-subs, who sat at the back of their master Alcorn, grew restive in their seats and absolutely one of them blushed for shame. He compared the cost of government under the rule of home-folks and honest men with by the Radicals in the most profligate and way into the pockets of the mongrel horde reckless expenditures, or had else found its marked the work of Vandals and destroyers

In short, he demonstrated by the record of the party, as made up by itself, that it is un-worthy the confidence of the people. Nay termination, at the hands of all honest and as before stated, in a way that carried the Gov. Alcorn opened his speech by an an-resolution of 1856 he was setting a trap for the Democracy, that he failed to catch them the animal a long time, knew his track, his

It seems that the Governor is fond of he soon quits the field of figures, there was seeks to intimidate the people into its sup-composed, that it is not worthy of further

Col. Barksdale, in the few words of his replication, exploded the threat of Alcorn.

He cited Virginia. Tennessse, Kentucky, Alabama, Missouri and Texas as States which had recently east of the yoke of Radicalism, and yet profound peace reigns

Mississippi has the example of these glo rious States before her. She, too, has roused port by such foul means as this.

AND SUPPLEMENT AND THE THIRD IS himself!] that he had hunted convicting power of truth.

he caught sign, his smell.

peace loving men. He next proceeded to that of the hybrid thing called governme

Ku-Klux, but said be was not one now.

and the Saviour took him to his heart.'

For a moment the stillness of the vast andience was profound. Every eye was fixed charge, whereupon Col. Barksdale and charged that he had, notwithstanding three fingers into the place!

of the operator made quick work of it.

is on trial and he arraigned it-

From the Meridian Gazette.

this elequent Tribune of the People, will Attempt at Fraud in Marshall scheme for carrying Marshall for the

He is still unable to fill hope of carrying Marshall county by fair ered it time. We trust the ever-vigilant Montgomery, Ala., on Thursday Night, gerous transfer in Rankin county, but means, have now attempted a desperate Conservatives of Marshall county will his place is well filled by the gallant expedient in view of their approaching be able to frustrate this diabolical arstably who sweeps away all the works defeat in the coming election. The reg- rangement, and we believe they will. Shelby who sweeps away all the works shelby who sweeps away all the works of the enemy and plants his flag on their of the enemy and plants his flag on their istration law provides that the Sheriff, Chancery Clerk and President of the Board of Supervisors of each county shall appoint the Registrars. This was done in Marshall county as in the other counties of the State; two Republicans and one Conservative were selected.

At the close of the debate defeat in the coming election. The registration law provides that the Sheriff, Chancery Clerk and President of the Board of Supervisors of each county shall appoint the Registrars. This was done in Marshall county as in the other counties of the State; two Republicans and one Conservative were selected.

The Leader Changes its Tactics of mine could do justice to the description. One tithe of the suffering and ruin more. Gov. Alcorn and Mr. Barksdale, The appointing officers in Marshall coun-Brandon, on Wednesday, it was mu- ty now claim the right and are attemptand understood between ing to exercise the power of removal of that they would meet the next day the Board of Registrars at their pleasure. been Judge of the Supreme Court of Mis-Brockhaven. Mr. Barksdale was These appointing officers are Gill, Presithere at the appointed time-and the peodent of the Board of Supervisors, and has naught to say about the editorial which -but lo! the "Eminent now Radical candidate for the Legisla-Man" was not. Mr. B. awaited all day ture; Buchanan, Sheriff and Radical the dastardly attack which was made upman was made up upon them in the midst of their crime was sithout meeting his opponent. The candidate for the same office, and Na- on Judge Simrall in that editorial. It applauded, and from one end of the Union Resokhaven meeting was Gov. Alcorn's bors, Chancery Clerk and Radical candidoes not inform us if it approve or disdate for the same office, if they are per- approve of that editorial, or whether mitted to control the actions of the Board or not it considers it proper for Su-Do not be ashamed or afraid to show of Registrars, the election will of course preme Judges to write puffs of themour hand, Conservatives; and vote an be a mere farce, for we know that one of selves for partizen journals. them, Gill, would not hesitate to do any hold the power of appointment could remittee. move at pleasure the registrars and fill Nor are we informed whether or not their places with persons who would be the Leader thinks "any man might well mere tools in the hands of the aspirants "be proud of" the civil record of Judge for office. If this is to be the interpre- Tarbell, but instead, it turns up the tation of the laws the Radical candidates white of its eyes and draws down the might as well have been authorized by corners of its mouth, and in the most it to hold elections. If they can remove sanctimonious tones begins the "truly registrars before the election and place loyal" and hypocritical cant about "the their tools in the positions, they can do so after the election, and have the vote lion."

I know very well that his nomination with the positions, they can do so after the election, and have the vote lion."

I know very well that his nomination. I know very well that his nomination will not be defeated—at least that is speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of these fiends, he says:

"Some of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which speaking of the Rev. Henry Wa counted to suit themselves.

Marshall county and of the State, the rebels," those who had asked and receivlaw confers no such power, and will ad ed mercy (and office) at the hands of the mit of no such interpretation. The "great Suzerai," we did not know that power of appointment is given and of it could sing the "truly loval" song of There is another circumstance connected filling vacancies created by registrars be- the carpet-bagger. We find it can to coming candidates, by "resignation," perfection. "death, removal from the county, or refusal 'discharge the duties under the same," but lt gives no power of removal or to fill

But this is not the extent of the at tempt at fraud. Fearing they would fail in this, they immediately put upon foot another scheme of rascality. And the brains of the Radical leaders in this State are known to be pregnant with will ever be remembered against them to them, and they can be brought forth at a moment's notice. Notwithstanding the people. The readers of THE CRARION law in relation to the registration of vo. well know its sentiments on this subject. ters- expressly provides, Art. 4, sec. 1, that "the Board shall immediately upon "the completion of the registration of the "loyal people of Mississippi," in the "county, have prepared by the clerk, and Leader's interpretation of the word "some member of the Board when neces- "loyal," but THE CLARION does and will "sary, a correct copy, in alphabetical or- speak the feelings of the great mass of "der, of the registered voters of each Su- Mississippians who were true to their perxisor's or Election district," the Board mother State during the war, and have of Supervisors of Marshall county by not faltered in their devotion to her when In East Mississippi (as in other parts a vote of three to two, Gill, the Presithe State) there are hosts of eloquent dent, of course voting in the affirmative, would join with the oppressors of the peowhom the tax- adopted at a recent meeting an order in ple of the South. And if THE CLARION hand to sustain, attempted to destroy by hereafter gratefully remem- the following terms: "That the sheriff be can gain for itself the title of exponent of for their patriotic labors in achieving authorized to procure seventeen copies the gallant men that stood by Mississippi Chicago in the milet of her suite Great Deliverance from the oppres- of all the registered voters in the in the days which tried men's souls; and "county, arranged alphabetically, those of the noble women who could and did "of each Supervisors district by them- kneel in the ashes, all that was left of rds us pleasure to mention the names "selves." This was an arrogant assumptheir once beautiful homes after the Evans, Steele, Ramsey, Hamm, Few- tion of power and a violation of the law "truly loyal" had marched by, and offer-Coleman, Whittaker, Morris, Chas. of the State, and it is a duty that Gov. ed up a prayer to the Great God for the Smith—together with the captains of Alcorn, who has sworn to execute the desolated and oppressed South; and of South within the past few years. [Renewed the tens and hundreds whose energies law, owes to the law and to the people of those who stand ready at all times and states that they were amazed at the number enlisted. Encouraged and abetted Marshall county, to remove the perpe- under all circumstances to combat Radi-Marshall county, to remove the perperture the prediction calism at the ballot box; if The Clarion that delegations from that profession had come from all the cities to aid the ruin and ette, at Meridian-the Courier and that as the violation of law was commit- can gain for itself, we repeat, the title of at, at Enterprise—the Ledger, at New- ted in the interest of the Radical party, exponent of these noble people, we will that delegations of thieves and robbers have the Register at Forest—the opposers he will close his eyes and ears to the ask no prouder one; though the "truly Kadicalism are moving irresistibly on- fact, and the guilty will go unpunished.

And this did not satisfy them. The cause of Radicalism in Marshall must be in a desperate strait, and its adherents in their desperation seem to hesitate at nothing. We cite another violation of the laws. The Election Law, Art. 2, Sec. 2, provides that the Board of Supervisors with the aid of the Sheriff and one or more of the Registrars, at their October session, shall designate the proper Sheriff or other police officer, &c., to protect the polls and place of voting .-Instead of discharging this important duty carefully and impartially as they should have done, the Board of Supervisors of Marshall county at its October meeting, ordered, "That the President of this Board be and is hereby authoriz-"ed to act for this Board with the Sher-"iff in appointing Deputy Sheriffs and 'Police officers to keep the peace at elec-"tion precincts." Thus absolutely giving a candidate for the Legislature (Gill) and the candidate for sheriff (Buchanan) the power to appoint all of the peace of- "true Republican candidates for the Legficers who are to assist at the polls upon to intimate that Mr. Barksdale programme of the Radicals in Marshall Has "tired" of meeting Gov. Alcorn. county is: First, their candidates are to the the Governor at Brandon in dis-Inspectors of election, which means the If you are not at the polls early, you understood that they should candidates will have the appointment of the Inspectors or election Judges, and the counting of the votes. Second, their candidate for Sheriff is to have the making out of the list of votess, and of course he will leave off or put on, such as he pleases. Third, not satisfied with the appointment of Judges, the counting a moment's warning"? Remember, the of votes, saying (by making out the lists) who shall vote and who shall not, their candidate for the Legislature, and the candidate for Sheriff are to appoint the police officers, who of course, are to be Radical bullies, who will perform the duty of driving Conservatives from the polls, and arresting such as resist their patriotic measures for carrying the elec-

7th of November.

Radicals, and would no doubt have suc- GENERAL FRANK BLAIR, The Radicals, having given up all ceeded admirably had not it been discov-on the Tarbell Question.

The Leader has not one word to say in act, however dishonorable, to accomplish defense, or in disapproval of the notorious and calumnious Brandon letter The registration law expressly provides which Judge Tarbell wrote, but of which that each registrar shall take an oath he was "in no sense the author." It has that "he is not and does not expect to be nothing to say of the vile slanders which 'a candidate at any election to be held were perpetrated upon the people of Mis-"in the county during the year." This sissippi in general, and Scott county in provision would be a perfect nullity if particular, in Judge Tarbell's letter to been closed, there was plenty of whisky candidates for office who happened to the Congressional Re-construction Com- quarters, and they certainly were freely Until now, we had thought that the Fortunately for the Conservatives of Leader was the organ of the "repentant

> It need not have made such a terrible splutter about our having said that we consider the vandalisms which were perpetrated during the war by the Northern mark their pathway, as a reproach upon THE CLARION does not, and never will, loyal" cant about "unrepentant rebels" and "disloyalty" forever.

White Conservatives, it is your duty to intimidated. They have a right to vote Conservatives you have but eight more working days before the election day.

ma county Republican, died at Greenwood Springs, Monroe county, on the Constitutional Convention, the notorious Committee of Five, a Senator in the last Legislature, and President of the last Radical State Convention.

Two Republican Tickets in Mad-Republicans of Madison county, which Conservatives and Democrats, Mississippians all, are you "ready to move at watchword is, "Mississippians must rule

Has your neighbor the means of get ting to the polls? If he has your duty to supply him.

Mississippi expects every Democraand Conservative to do his duty on the Great Speech of DELIVERED AT October 19, 1871.

One tithe of the suffering and ruin more In what we presume the Leader would call its reply to our last article upon the conduct of Jonathan Tarbell since he has as to startle and shock the civilized world, sissippi, it changes its tactics entirely. It has naught to say about the editorial which These wretches, these fiends in human form. appeared in the Pilot. Naught to say of the dastardly attack which was made upto the other. I have selected a paragraph from the newspaper descriptive of the vile excesses committed by these criminals: "Gangs of armed ruffians were every where patrolling about, hunting the roins for plunder, and breaking into safes, withfor plunder, and breaking into sales, with out the slightest interference from any one in authority. A remonstrance was met with a blow of a bludgeon, and few had the temerity to interfere, and the brutes too seemed to have it all their own way. Heat-ed with whiskey and excitement, they caused a complete reign of terror, and where they came every one fled. The Mayor had issued another proclamation directing the closing of the saloons, but no attention was paid to it; the police made no endeavor to enforce it and in nine cases out of ten were themselves intoxicated. Even had they broached. I never saw so many under the influence of drink, and where the roughs came from I cannot imagine. Full as Chi-cago was with them I had never believed she contained so many as I saw on the street on Thursday. Many had come in from other cities; every train was bringing its contin-

Such was the deplorable demoralization of men who could, amid these scenes of desolation, ruin and suffering, descend to the vileness of plunder and the crime of assassination to accopmlish that plunder. I have also a paragraph, taken from a sermon speaking of these fiends, he says: "Some say there can't be a devil. I have "Some say there can't be a devil. I have only to say if there isn't a devil there is a pires to be in the country at large. (Apperent good material to make one of. [Applause.) I believe that he will dictate his plause. And if God is too good to have a own nomination; but then, my fellow-citi-devil in chief. He isn't too good to have the some of the most conspic-of Commissioners to be appointed by a Redevil in chief. He isn't too good to have gens, I know that some of the most conspicone in déteil. Nothing can exceed the their fellow men."

with this deplorable occurrence to which I nom and generosity of the citizens of the North and East, and West, last but not least, of the mpoverished South, [applause,] in coming to the aid of the stricken inhabitants of to the aid of the stricken inhabitants of Chicago. This is the one redeeming aspect disaffected Republicans. Rather than to citizens, the first time that the State of New of this most melancholy occurrence.

Now, my fellow-citizens, I desire briefly to allude to another picture of suffering and to you, because it is burned into your hearts with a brand of iron. No description which I could give of the suffering, and endurance, and want which fell upon the entire south during and since the war, could do anything like justice to the subject, or ought to be attempted in the midst of these peoe, who were the victims of that suffering. The people South, during the war, suffered far exceeding in magnitude even if compared with the population, that which has llen upon the people of Chicago. They lost everything except the land upon which they stood; but with a courage which they the world, [renewed applause,] they raised would be of his Bourbonism. My fellowthemselves up, resolved to renew their prosperity and rescue those who leaned upon them from suffering and starvation. Years of disaster followed the war-the oss of crops, hostile legislation, taxing the ment of Great Britain was guaranteeing the amount of our National debt to build of animosity, instead of holding out the which not even Radical reconstruction taxation that upon which the prosperity of the South rested. In addition to all of this, Chicago in the midst of her ruin, occurred here in the midst of your greater ruin. to come in your midst and plunder all that was left. [Loud and prolonged applause,] tion of this influx of plunderers into ruined Chicago which I have taken from the New word, to that which has transpired in the come from all sections to infest like the army worm and eat up the prosperity of the

There is one point, my fellow-citizens, in suffering of Chicago is almost redeemed by the exhibition of the boundless charity of the people of this whole country and of the protect colored men who vote the Con-distant Europe. They have been allowed to servative ticket. See that they are not want for nothing that the world's wealth could give them. It could not restore their dead, but it has generally fed the living. as they please; see that they enjoy that And when these vile malefactors from all perts of the world, forgetful of humanity, ufferers in Chicago, the whole world has said that, when stricken down by the hand There was no exhibition of this sympathy for the suffering South. [Sen-ation] This aster in a brave people struggling to hold together the bonds of society and almost perishing in the effort; assailed on every side by the heartless and the guilty, is not re-deemed by that grand trait of humanity, of generosity, and of magnanimity which has characterized the deplorable distress and redeems the picture of our suffering brethren

All who are familiar with the condition of the South, all who know what she has undergone, when after the surrender all government was denied to her, and she was then given into the hands of the ignorant and most vicious of your population, [ap-plause] all who know this, who have lived in your midst and realized the tremendous concludes with: "The following are the "true Republican candidates for the Leg-have borne before, this has not extinguished in your hearts the common bond of humanity. [Prolonged applanse.]

My fellow-citizens, we knew before that that feeling still lived and burned in the hearts of the South; men as brave as they showed themselves to be in the great struggle which has passed could never forget the claims of humanity. [Loud and prolonged applause.] In my judgment, these are the men to whom we have to look in the coming struggles applause.] Ruin and insult have not been despotism is practiced, and they know its gle which has passed could never forget the claims of humanity. [Loud and prolonged applause.] Ruin and insult have not been able to extinguish your sympathy nor your humanity, and the time is coming and nearly come, when the whole of this country will recognize that truth which all the solders who fought against the South already acknowledge. [Cheers.]

Fellow-citizens, there are some questions growing out the position of the South in speeches by distinguished men of the South certain advice to the people of the South which touches all the South and all who sympathise with the South in other quarters of our country. I have seen it proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the proposed that in the next Demogratic configuration of the n quarters of our country. I have seen it State of Missouri to break down the dis-proposed that in the next Democratic con- franchising clause of our Constitution, (apvention, to be held for the nomination of a plause, and arrayed his fellow countrymen as one man against the administration, and tates, the South should forbear to take any | despising the offices of Grant, despising hi

North may see proper to offer.

I dissent entirely from that proposition (hearty applause.) I think I may here enter the protest of every Democrat in the West and North (renewed applause). The triumph of the Democratic party is the safety of the South. (Applause.) And who should guard its safety but Southern men? (Applause.) If they fell when any poor the protest of the southern men? (Applause.) If they fell when any poor the safety but Southern men? plause.) If they fail, why may not others relieve you is the thing which the South looks to and looks to alone. They have no questions of personal favorites to be advanced. To them all are Democrats.—(Cheers.) Their voice will fall upon him who is most likely to carry that banner to triumous triumph. (Applause.) If the South fails to give us the benefit of her wise counselif she fails to send her prudent and wise men, who will go there with an eye single to success—if they leave the Democracy of the North the struggle of a nomination amidst the coniending factions of the as-pirants, she will withhold from us the benefit of the wisest and most impartial counsel we can have. (Immense applause.)

If she should abstain, even though it be upon the ground stated by some of these distinguished gentiemen who advocate this course, and who say that their presence in the convention in 1868 was laid hold of and used to the destruction of the Democratic party. I the convention is a sound upon those principles, he will reduce the support of the entire German vote of the United States, numbering as I have been informed, from five hundred to eight hundred thousand men. (Immense applianse.) party. I tell you their absence now will be claimed as a refusal to go with the Northern Democrats because they have adopted the New Departure. (Sensation. It will be claimed that the spirit of rebel-lion still lingers and burns under the mouldering ashes, and it is lighted into a new flame of indignation because the Democratic party of the North or a large portion of them have assumed, for reasons that seem good to them, to make certain concessions in their platform. It would be suicidal; it would be destructive to your very best in-

Nov my fellow-citizens, to my view, the future does not look gloomy even under the losses we have suffered this summer and autumn. I have not a single feeling of despondency. (Applause.) It is well understood that the Republican party contains in itself steds of discontent, of bitterness, or rivalry, and of disaffection, and it is natural in these preliminary elections that those these preliminary elections that those who antagonize the renomination of Gen eral Grant should attempt to hold their po-sition within their party in order that their influence may be used to defeat his numi- to say: the corruption in New York grew nous, able and courageous men who stand publican Governor to take charge of the afwickedness and inhumanity of those men who have taken this occasion to prey upon kighest in the Radical party, will leave the Republican party when Grant is nominated precisely as Congress has done in all the > Grant and the Radical party. (Applause.) on our principles in making a choice between candidates, neither of whom may publican who was in favor of universal amesty, against the Ku Klux bills, (applause, S. Grant, (renewed applause,) and hold all illustrious statesmen and the illustrious warriors who were foremost in the struggle for our independence, that State which gave us a long line of illustrious Presidents that State which in our unfortunate war, after having guided the councils of the naeracy (enthusiastic cheering,) that State could subject to a Scalawag or a Carpetbagger-(applause)-that State which was cleft in twain by the Radical Congress to resentation in the Senate in order to op press the South, and which the wise sons o Virginia have erected into two fortresse for the defence of the country. (Loud applause.) Shall the Democracy of the South hesitate to follow the counsel of the Old D-minion? Why, we have taken heed of > large majority than any other State for the candidate of the Democratic party. (Loud Fellow-cittizens-There is one aspect of politics to which I wish now briefly to advert. The controversy in which we are now engaged has subsisted for the last forty years as a struggle between sections. For years it has been a fight between the North and South—a war of words and a war of swords—and that was a war of giants.—

her example in Missouri. Trammeled with election laws and disfranchised, we have risen and rent the bonds which bound us; at the next Presidential election give :

The world stood still to look upon that war; everything was involved in it, and the combatants bore themselves in such wise, have been urgent in this matter, to make as notwithstanding all the material wealth you a short address. I have had no time to lost to the country, it rose for the first time in its history, at the close of the war, to the dignity of a first-class power. (Applause.) the duty devolved upon me by this Com-During all this time down to the present, mittee. our political controversy has been a contest between sections. Do you not observe that I am here as you all know in the capacity of this contest has left its seeds?—that in the an investigator—not by my own free will minds of men born and reared in the North there is a pride in dominating over the ri-val section? that they are willing that some wrong may be done, if it done to the South. It was not right that the South should be It is impossible to pluck from the hearts of the people of the North this sentiment. No matter how honest they may be---no mat- without a hearing. I know how imperfect ter that they may have been brought up in the teachings of freedom and liberty, they will still tolerate an injustice and outrage committed upon that section which they have unhappily been taught was the rival and the enemy of their section. A polymer and the enemy of their section. (Applause) My fellow-citizens: The Fathers of this of Alabama and the people of the whole government at its institution, planted in our South, as I wish and we all wish. had the some excellent principles which have borne | defenders from their oldest and | best citiand are going to bear good fruit hereafter. Among others was that one planted deeply in the democratic heart of our country—the invitation to men in all lands who love I believe, as I have already said, that the liberty and wish to find homes to come as day is not far distant when the courage, en-Thousands and tens of thousands, aye, mil-lions of men have been sheltered under this in the hearts of the Southern people will be was so regarded by Congress. In this arcitizens to this new Continent. (Applause.) durance, obedience to law, and devotion to

I rejoice that all the suffering you have undergone, all the perils through which you have passed, have not derprived you of the disposition to sympatise with the sufferings of others. [Loud applause.] The small offering which the impoverished South has fied with the particular section in which they are not identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with the particular section in which they are not country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with the particular section in which they are not find the property of the sense in which they are not identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which those who are native born are identified with any one part of our country in the sense in which the particular section in wh The men of foreign birth, who have come been able to send to Chicago will weigh they were born. They come and are made like the widow's mite; it will have the blescitizens of the whole country and all parts sing of God. [Applause.] It will teach your oppressors that, whilst suffering and smarting under wrong such as no people have borne before, this has not extinguishshould do so, because they looked upon this country as one and indivisible; and now, with the same sentiment in their hearts.

(Applause.)

(Appl

part whatever; that the South should de-cline to be represented, but should accept whatever candidate the Democrats of the patronage and power, resolved to preserve that freedom which America had given to

Now, my fellow-citizens, the Germans in Missouri, aithough Republicans almost to a man, have always voted against the disfranchising of those who were opposed to them during the war; (applause,) they needed no instruction upon that point from blause.) If they fail, why may not others the doctrine that neither Congress nor the states could by a bill of attainder, deprive Myjellow-citizens, a triumph which will men of the right of suffrage. (Applause.) They maintained that position in the last contest through which we passed in Missou-ri. They held it good against the blandishments and threats of the administration; they stand fairly and squarely to-day, sol-idly to the last man against all disfranchisement and for universal amnesty. (Applause) They are opposed to this Ku Kiux legislation; (loud applause.) against the suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus; (renewed applause,) and in my judgment if a man is presented as the candidate of the Democratic party-- if the Democratic par-ty will now, instead of adopting any New Departure, put forward a man, or accept one who may be put forward by others, who is sound upon those principles, he will re

> As a matter of course we ought to have stituted among men; but a terrible reality and a success as an agent of iniquity, plunsomething to say in nominating the man, and I think we will. I think the Democrats in Virginia had something to do with the designation of the candidate whom they supported. I believe they had also in Ten-nessee. We had, I know, in Missouri at the ers Conservative, was a young and vigorous party, which had grown out of the exigen last election, and if we can get a man of that kind, one who fills the bill, one who if vowed all responsibility on its part for elected will call a halt on all this unconstiwhatever alleged errors of omission or com-mission had been attributed to other parties utional legislation and throw out of power those who are using your means to deprive that had gone before it. He did not pro-pose, like Gov. Alcorn, hyena-like to dig down into the graves of dead and buried questions and use them to divert attention you of your liberty, extracting from your pockets the means by which they control the government, I think we may have in the future a career which will enable the people of the South to restore their prosperity of the measures of the past, to expose the tergiversations of the "Champion," who are in a tight place, when this accusation of using public money is brought home to them, to point to Tammany in New York. Just here, my fellow-citizens, I have a word denial by the Radical Legislature of New York to allow the city of New York to gov-ern its own affairs, the deprivation of local and burn their ships. (Applause and laugh-ter.) When they fail to defeat him for the sult which has followed them, of the plunnation they will take good pains to der and corruption by mixed And again: instead of going for a New Departure, I would prefer to go for a man who represents the New Departure; I forced upon you at the point of the bayonet. go back upon my own principles I would York elected a Democratic Legislature prefer to make a choice of Republicans, and go for a man who should be nominated by assembled two winters ago. The Democrats the disaffected Republicans, or what would in the Legislature, with the exception of the better, one who might be nominated by five or sx, demanded the restoration of the the Democrats in their convention, and city of New York; that the people should thus draw to us by a much stronger guaran-tee than the mere words of a platform, the town magistrates and their own rulers; support of those who are dissatisfied with and the Radical members of the Legisla ture, with the exception of one single memcluding Tweed, who was himself a Senator, not only to confirm the rule of Tammany but to extend its power. (Sensation.) If the Democratic party in the first ses-sion in which it obtained power in the New and enthusiastic applause) while the most ancient Bourbon in Alabama could vote for ed by this combination of a few of its corrupt men with the entire body of the eals they would have overthrown Tammathe time to his very heart, all that there ny and restored to the people of New York he control of their own affairs, and we citizens, the State of Virginia has adopted should have heard nothing of the pluder of this policy-that State which furnished the these millions which have recently startled If the Congress of the United States had allowed the people of the South to reorganize their State governments, to elect their own officers and rulers, we should have heard nothing of the profligate plunder of two hundred and fifty millions dollars which have been taken from the treasuries of the South. [Great applause.] I have condition of the Southern States, almost from its inception: I have listened to find as the net result that two bondred and fifty millions have been extorted from the impoverished and down-trodden South by the carpet-baggers who were put in ower in the Southern States. [Immense nd long continued applause.] The sum does not represent the third of heir robberies. (Applause) It simply epresents what they have abstracted from the State treasuries. (Renewed applause.) In addition to that they have seized upon the treasury of every county in your State, and in every State in the South, and of very large city, where they have fattened and gorged themselves. (Continued applause. (Five hundred ;millions of dollars uld not cover the extortions of these eeches, and five hundred Tammanys can-

Fellow-citizens, it is not my purpose to detain you. ("Go on, go on.") I did not purpose to make any speech when I came into your midst. I did not deem that it was entirely appropriate that I should assume the attitude of an adviser, but I have been prevailed upon by some of my friends who have been urgent in this matter, to make ponder the topics most appropriate; and I have only taken a few brief moments from

I will say to you my fellow-citizens, that an investigator-not by my own free will (applaus (-not that I believed that the body that sent me here had the power to do this thing; but because others came and it was not right that the South should be the feeblest arm, inspire with a determina-tion to do what would be done if the people zens. (Applause.) I have come freely and no game there for him. He then proceeded and the candidate for sheriff (Buchanan) the power to appoint all of the peace of the power to appoint all of the peace officers who are to assist at the polls upon ficers who are to assist at the polls upon

ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon
ficers who are to assist at the polls upon ficers who are to the country.

In the hearts of the Southern people will nently taken from yours (Applause.)-Those who hesitate now to be your friends will be your friends when they find that their own liberties are imperiled with yours.

(Cheers.) Fellow-citizens, I am exceedingly obliged to you for your very kind attention, and beg leave to bid you good night. [The speaker retired amid enthusiastic and long ontinued applause.]

From the Vicksburg Herald. Our friends Power and Fairebild can within their borders, instead of bayonet probably appreciate the following from the Paducak Kentuckian: "We would rather be door-keeper for a side show, where there was an educated hog, the fat woman, and WEEKLY CLARION November our county will prove that her people are among the truest and most worthy of the sons of a proud and noble State. A MOST ATROCIOUS MURDER.

A Diabolical Ontrage Committed by Radicals.

spoken in vain. The people will emulate s zeal and patriotism, and on the 7th of

The Life of a Conservative Taken in Cold Blood. He is actually Hacked to

Pieces with Sabres. CARPET-BAGGER LEWIS, THE RADICAL CAN-DIDATE FOR SHERIFY OF LOWNDES

COUNTY KNOWN TO BE RESPON-SIBLE FOR IT.

From the Columbus Index.

The people of Mississippi have witnessed another terrible example of the teachings of carpet-baggery, and of what they may continue to expect if the native and import-discussion in a speech of nearly two hours, arraigning the Radical party and its leaded scoundrels who direct the passions of the egroes are not burled, by a united effort. om the eminence they disgrace to the bell f a people's condemnation they deserve. On Saturday evening last, a little before tark, there was perpetrated one of the complished speaker—an overwhelming expose of the Radical party. They greeted the speech with lond cheers and prolonged MOST COLD BLOODED applause, and even the negroes themselves murders that ever blackened the annals of crime. A harmless citizen was taken by an infuriated mob of blacks, who have been taught by such men as Lewis, Bliss, Gleed, and Whitfield, and butchered like a dog to satisfy their bate and mailee. But we will giving the facts as presented by witnesses. It appears that on the evening in question, large number of Radical negroes, various ly estimated at from eight hundred to two thousand, assembled in Arresia, a short stance from the depot, to hear speeches from two carpet-baggers. Lewis and Blus. They came to the station more like than as a body or citizens gathered to hear public addresses. Hundreds were mounted were armed. There seemed to be officers in charge, who ever and ders "close op." "halt!" and the like commauds. The rostrom was a wagon, and and Bliss was in the motat of a harangoo when a white man, named Los, walked from listener, with no interest in the gatherin more than that of ordinary curiosity that day-was a carpenter in the employ M. & O. Railroad-and was waiting for the left the Hotel five infinites before a shot wa fired in the crowd, followed by four others whether by accident or design; but the gun Artesta saw it raised at an angle of fortyfive degrees, and fired, but he cannot now dentify the negro. Les turned to leave the crowd at this moment,

SHOT WAS PIRED.

In reference to the charge that Gov. Al-corn had made, that the present opposers of Radicalism were responsible for secession, he produced a resolution offered by white man!

earliest advocates of a dissolution of the shoot him!" and they attacked him with Union; and also revived the recollection of their gans and pistols. One blow of a sahis action, as a member of the Convention bre cut a fearful gash in the back of his of 1860, which was described in detail. The head, which alone would have killed him. He then spoke of the war which Alcorn has | der blade, which reached his heart, causing waging against the Ku-Kiux Klan, almost instant death. You could have put is ferocity toward that mystical band, gone | with this, the cowardly wretches actually gan-grinder. Alcorn from his seat, denied there was no carpet-bagger's band to prevent the doubly infamou with a portion of the crowd; the body behas not denied it. Now, sir, you have un- ing left to the charge of the few white citiour city, now a contractor on the road, was present at the examination of the body, and states that there was self to dismiss him from the Lunatic Asy- about the clothing-that he thought, from from the man's centracter, that he did not carry weapons. He also states that he concatch his response. But it came not. The It is established by other responsible per"Champion" subsided, sank back in his sons that Lee was a modest shambles, attered not a sound. To this Col. the last man in the world to interfers in a shoes to be blacked, and talking rational feet, admitted that Dr. Compton had been a who are accountable for the murder of poor Lee? Unquestionably the RENEGADES AND CAMPET-BAGGERS who have educated the ignorant negroes to It is respectfully suggested to the Gov-ernor that the illustration is a bad one, in-as Lewis, fills, Gleed, and Whitfield are his whereas Compton was converted by selfish that did it, considerations. Judas would have filled the same crowd same crowd at Prairie Hill, the same day with arms and evil intentions. By accident he left Artesia a few hours before the ination of the man (God save the mark!) The wonder of this country of wonders Col. Barksdale descended, if any man could is that such men are permitted to breather the air that gives life to a proud and noble Radical Oppression.

HARMLESS WORKMEN.

A Reign of Terror in South Carolina-Wholesale Arrests by the Millimey.

as administered by 'mournful facts.' He showed that the tax money wrung from an Citizens Fleeing from their Homes and Abandoning their Property to Negroes.

more, that it is to be properly regarded as a troops. Forty-four citizens were arrested hydra-hesded monster, fit subject for ex- and crammed into a juil which was already itself to seek sufety in a more d and then proceeded to address their passions being committed upon the property of citi-and prejudices. He avoided the barrier of zens who have fled, by negroes and other figures and said that when he offered the evil disposed persons.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 .- Advices received hunting parties by their smell, and we sup- | Klux band, consisting of the chief and twenty members, surrendered to United he now runs with. He is a good dog; but States Marshad Johnson. Up to Friday to violate the enforcement act, as Col. Barks-burg is known to be the headquarters of dale had charged he would, by threatening that Congressional District. Arrests have the bayonet would be brought back to the ber is not known here.

made, they will, it is affirmed, show the existence of a deep and wide conspiracy against the State, the laws and all who sus ain them. Most of the Ku-Klux refugees Of such miserable stuff was this speech are known to have fled to Georgia, where the Order is quite strong. The Grand Cy-clops for that State is believed to be the sonn-law of Robert Toombs.

> Vowing He'd Ne'er Consent, Consented.

From the Meridian Mercury. Our detective reporter who watches the little ways of the "Fools and Thieven," says that Alcorn was offish to Mosely at the first, upon his arrival here; in fact, anubbed him. But he says Bob did not take it resentfully at all, but, on the contrary, be paid court with such nice and insinuating address that he soon won over completely his Emi nence a cordial invitation to his "teathered nest," which was graciously accepted. By this sign we read that MbMulian's exposi tion of the Mosely peculations dos not meet Executive approval. The Governor probably holds that it is wrong to "tell tales out

The Registered vote in Montgomery county is, white 1385, colored 960-